

CAPTAIN J. L. HOGARTY TO SPEAK ON IRELAND

Capt. John L. Hogarty, a Washington attorney, will address the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, Sunday night at Gonzaga Hall, 45 I street northwest. Captain Hogarty, who served with the American Expeditionary Force in France for two years during which time he visited Ireland, will discuss his experiences.

Dr. Joseph Dunne, head of the Gaelic department at Catholic University, will speak on Irish life and ideals at the regular weekly meeting of the Gaelic H. Pearce branch of the Friends of Irish Freedom to be held Sunday night at Typographical Temple, 423 G street northwest. Other speakers will address both meetings.

All Fur Coats HALF PRICE

2-Skin Genuine Russian
Sable Scarfs, $105
Beautiful Fox Scarfs for Spring Wear, $15

Equally big values in all other furs previous to taking stock. The time of all times to buy furs.

SAKS FUR CO

Manufacturers Who Retail
at Wholesale Prices
1212 F Street

Society

by JEAN ELIOT

A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS
WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN
AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP
WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

Kendricks Will Entertain Tonight For Marshalls

SENATOR and Mrs. John B. Kendrick will give a dinner this evening in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall. Covers will be laid for fourteen.

Last evening Vice President and Mrs. Marshall were entertained at dinner by Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr. Their guests included Senator and Mrs. James A. Reed, Senator and Mrs. Atlee Pomeroy, Senator and Mrs. William M. Calder, Mrs. Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Senator Frank B. Brandegee, Congressman and Mrs. James S. Parker, Congressman and Mrs. Alanson B. Houghton, Congressman and Mrs. Charles E. Ward, Congressman Hamilton Fish, Jr., Mary Randolph, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Weeks.

Mrs. Willis VanDevanter was hostess to Mrs. Marshall at luncheon today, having invited a small but distinguished company of ladies to meet her.

The Argentine Ambassador and Mrs. LeBreton will give a dinner tonight in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Preston Pope Satterwhite, of New York. There will be eighteen guests.

Col. and Mrs. Francis Junkin will be hosts at dinner tonight at their home, 2100 O street, to the Secretary of War and Mrs. Newton D. Baker being the guests of honor.

John Barton Payne, Secretary of the Interior, will also be present.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Gordon Woodbury will entertain twenty-eight guests at dinner this evening in honor of Lady Geddes, wife of the British ambassador. Their guests will include the Minister of Switzerland and Mrs. Marc Peter, and the two senators from New Hampshire, Senator George Higgins Moses and Senator Henry Wilder Keyes, with Mrs. Moses and Mrs. Keyes.

The marriage of Miss Emily Johnson, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Edwin S. Johnson, of South Dakota, and Alfred P. Oxtoby, of Wheeling, W. Va., took place today at noon at the Willard Hotel.

The ceremony was performed quietly in the Presidential suite by Rev. G. L. Humphries, of the Methodist Church, in the presence of thirty-five guests, who included the relatives and close friends of the bride and bridegroom. A wedding breakfast followed.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailored traveling suit of imported blue tulle and a smart spring hat of purple straw. Her corsage bouquet was of purple orchids. The decorations were in white and green, quantities of palms, smilax and white roses being used.

Mr. Oxtoby and his bride left during the afternoon for a wedding trip and will make their home in Wheeling.

Among the out-of-town guests who were here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oxtoby, of Wheeling and Wildsburg, W. Va., parents of the bridegroom, and their daughter, Miss Margaret Oxtoby; Mrs. Howard Warren, of Yankton, S. D., sister of the bride, and Miss Belle Johnson, another sister, of Washington and South Dakota.

Mrs. John K. Shields, wife of Senator Shields of Tennessee, is giving a reception today in the ball room at the Shoreham.

Miss Mildred Bromwell will be hostess at dinner tonight entertaining a company of twenty-six young people in compliment to Miss Cornelia Vanderbilt, who has arrived from New York to stay over the week-end with Miss Bromwell. Tomorrow evening the two girls will attend the dance at the Belgian embassy.

Dr. and Mrs. Davenport White will entertain at dinner tonight in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, Jr. Mrs. Lockwood Bishop, of New York, who is staying at the Shoreham, will be among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Fairbanks, who sold their house, 2340 R street, to the President and Mrs. Wilson, have moved to 2131 R street, the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, where they will make their home for the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson, who have been spending the early winter at their estate in Brookline, near Boston, have arrived in Washington and are at their residence on Massachusetts avenue.

Pleasant Alexander Stovall, former United States minister to Switzerland, is in Washington, visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Robert Leslie Craig, secretary and charge d'affaires of the British embassy, and Mrs. Craig.

Miss Caroline White entertained at luncheon today at the Shoreham Hotel, when Mrs. M. Grouitch, wife of the Serbian minister, was among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Story, Jr., will introduce their daughter, Miss Caroline Story, to a distinguished company of their friends this evening. They will entertain seventy-two guests at dinner at Grasslands.

Former Ambassador and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Brien will be hosts at dinner this evening in honor of the Ambassador to Japan and Mrs. Roland Morris. Covers will be laid for fifteen.

One of the most interesting events on the calendar this afternoon is the entertainment which the National Press Club is giving at B. F. Keith's Theater. An invitation has been extended to the Diplomatic Corps and the official war and it is expected that the audience will be both brilliant and representative.

The program will be distinctly original, including the reading of Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard" by the Secretary of State and debate between Congressman J. N. Tichenor and Congressman S. E. Winslow on one side, and Senator Paul Harrison and Senator Harry F. Ashurst on the other, the subject being "Is It Nobler to Fight Than This?" The Speaker of the House will be the judge. Reinold Werrenwath, baritone, will give a group of songs, with Harry Spier as his accompanist. Avery C. Marks, Jr., president of the club, will preside.

YESTERDAY'S FESTIVITIES.
The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand were the guests of honor yesterday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Livingston Farrand, and at a dinner at which Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins was the hostess.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Newton D. Baker gave a dinner last night at Beauvoir in honor of Gen. John J. Pershing. The other guests were Lady Geddes, the Serbian Minister and Mrs. M. Grouitch, General and Mrs. Louis Collardet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hamilton, Mrs. Thomas P. Walsh, Miss Mabel Boardman, Wesley Morris, Mr. Justice Clark, Gen. H. Keppel Bethell, of the British embassy, and Col. John G. Quekemyer.

The Argentine Ambassador and Mrs. LeBreton were entertained last evening at a dinner given for them by Mrs. James McDonald. The company included the Secretary of State and Mrs. Colby, the Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Barton Payne, Princess Lubomirsk, Viscount d'Albe, minister of Portugal; Senator and Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry, the Prince de Bearn, the charge d'affaires of Great Britain, and Mrs. Craigie, Dr. and Mrs. Preston Satterwhite, of New York; Mme. de Gona, Mrs. Cromwell Brooks, Mrs. Charles Bromwell, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. Paul Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. George Mayne, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., Colonel William Horton, Livingston Fryer, of Buffalo, and Arthur Bradley Campbell, son of the hostess. Mr. Fryer is visiting Mrs. McDonald and Mr. Campbell.

The Peruvian Ambassador and Mme. Peset were the guests of honor last evening at a large dinner party given by Col. and Mrs. George C. Thorpe at the Chevy Chase Club. Among the guests were Senator and Mrs. Miles Poindexter, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Gordon Woodbury, Prince and Princess Radziwill, Mrs. John Elliott, of Newport; Gen. John A. Lejeune, commandant of marines; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Warren, Col. and Mrs. Harry Lay, Mrs. George Eble, Capt. Yoshitake Uyeda, naval attaché of Japan, and Gen. Wendell C. Neville, U. S. M. C.

MRS. SAULSBURY IS HOST.
Mrs. Willard Saulsbury gave a dinner last evening in honor of the Belgian Ambassador and the Baroness de Cartier. Mrs. Saulsbury will be at home today.

Mrs. R. R. Govin entertained at dinner last evening at her home on Massachusetts avenue. Mrs. Govin has issued invitations to two large luncheons, one in compliment to Lady Geddes and one in compliment to Mme. Cespedes.

Mrs. John Temple Graves was at home yesterday at her new residence, 730 P street. Mrs. Graves was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John K. Shields and Mrs. James R. Mann. Mrs. T. DeWitt Talmage and Mrs. Joseph Hampson presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Marshall Field entertained at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. John Elliott, of Newport.

The charge d'affaires of Italy and Mme. Brambilla were the guests of honor at a dinner last evening at which Mrs. Henry F. Dimock was the hostess. Twenty-four guests were entertained at a dinner and guests going later for the dancing.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of the President-elect, has followed the course pursued while she was in Washington recently and has declined all invitations received in New York. Announcement that she would attend the theater last evening indicated that she might permit herself to relax a little after her strenuous days devoted to the choosing of her wardrobe for the coming demands made by social duties as the lady of the White House, but she found herself too weary to leave the hotel in which she is staying. Mrs. Edward B. McLean and Mrs. Harry New, however, went to see "The First Year" at the Little Theater.

Col. T. H. Birch, United States Minister to Peking, and Mrs. Birch, who left Washington yesterday, are passing a few days at the Hotel Vanderbilt, New York City.

Miss Louise Lettauer will be hostess at dinner tomorrow night, taking her guests later to the dance at the Belgian embassy.

Mrs. James Campbell Cantrill, wife of the Congressman from Kentucky, has received a special honor in being selected as one of the six women appointed to serve on the new executive committee of the Democratic National Committee. Mrs. Cantrill rendered important political service during the recent campaign, but mainly an assistant of her husband and it is significant that in the list of appointments George White, the chairman, seemingly has paid special tribute to the women strong in indirect as well as direct influence in public affairs.

Mrs. James L. Karkick gave a buffet luncheon yesterday for fifty guests.

Mrs. Truman C. Palmer entertained at a luncheon yesterday, after taking her guests to the Belasco Theater.

Mr. F. A. Collon, secretary of the Belgian embassy, was at a luncheon party at the Shoreham yesterday in honor of Miss Connelly, of New York. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., Miss Anna Hamilton, Count de Salis, and Mr. Alan Graves, of the British embassy.

tures by Dr. Langdon E. Mitchell, eminent Washington poet and playwright, on "poetry as the greatest of all means of individual self-development and of national culture and unity," held this morning in Concordia Lutheran Church, Twentieth and G streets northwest.

The course is open to the public as well as to members of the university. Students, faculty members, and officials of the university will be admitted free. The first lecture was of an introductory nature; the second will deal with the Old Testament; the third with the New Testament; the fourth and fifth with lyric poetry and the last three with Shakespeare.

Dr. Mitchell is the author of "Becky Sharp" and "The New York Idea," the latter of which has been filmed and recently was shown here. He is the son of the late Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, noted neurologist.

Among the out-of-town guests who will come to Washington to attend the wedding of Miss Mildred McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McGee, and Lieut. Leonard Marbury, Air Service, U. S. N., are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pittenger, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Weber, of Hamilton, Ohio; Mrs. Mildred, of Baltimore, and Miss Russell, of Virginia.

The marriage will take place on Tuesday evening, at the Washington Club, in the presence of a small company of relatives and close friends, and will be followed by a reception, to which additional guests have been invited. The Rev. P. C. Gavan, of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart, will perform the ceremony, and the bride will be given in marriage by her father.

Miss Isabel McGee will be maid-of-honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids are Miss Dorothy Woodson and Miss Marion Hill. Lieut. Henry Marbury, U. S. N., brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man, and the ushers will be H. C. Selden and William Patterson, of this city. Joshua Evans, 3d, and Charlie Graves will be the ribbon-bearers.

A number of parties are being planned for the spring season. Saturday afternoon Miss Naomi O'Neill will give a bridge party for her, and in the evening Miss McGee and her dance will be entertained by Miss Katherine Stauffer.

Mrs. Edwin S. Puller entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Spencer, wife of Senator Selden P. Spencer. Covers were laid for twelve and the center of the table was a miniature garden abloom with spring flowers. This is the first of a series of luncheons which Mrs. Puller will give throughout the season.

Judge and Mrs. L. R. Willey of New York will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Puller for the inauguration. Judge Willey was judge of the circuit court in the Philippines during the administration of William Howard Taft.

TRINITY COLLEGE DANCE.
More than a thousand guests are expected at the seventh annual dance of the Washington Chapter of the Trinity College Alumnae, tomorrow evening, at the Willard. The proceeds of which will be used for the gym fund. Mrs. Frank McGinn, of New York, wife of the star in "Abraham Lincoln," will be one of the patronesses. Mrs. McGinn will be the guest of Mrs. Peter Nea while she is in Washington. Miss Eleanor Grogan, of Baltimore, niece of Mrs. Lawrence Grogan, who heads the patronesses committee will attend the ball, and Frank McGinn, Jr., will be one of the guests.

Miss Mary Robertson, the new Congresswoman from Oklahoma, will be the speaker at a tea to be given at the College Women's Club, Monday, February 7, at 4:30. W. A. Wilbur, dean of George Washington University, will be the speaker at a reception on Wednesday, February 3, when his subject will be "Maritime Sketches of Old England." Mrs. Basil M. Manly, president of the club, will receive the guests.

RECEPTION FOR SENATOR.
The Georgia Society will give a farewell reception and dance in honor of its retiring president, Senator Hoke Smith, next Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tiller, 3409 Mt. Pleasant street. Senator Smith has been head of the society for several years and all Georgians in Washington are invited.

Thomas W. Lamont, chairman of the National Committee for Relief in China, will speak in behalf of the China Famine Fund at the home of the Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Norman H. Davis, 1627 New Hampshire avenue, at 3 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Davis, who is national

(Continued on Page Eleven.)

TRY SWORZYN'S FIRST

1219-21 G St. N.W.

Hemstitching
Pecot Edging
Plating
Buttons Made to Order

Quick service—moderate prices—work guaranteed.

Graduate
McGinn Medical College

Eyes Examined
Dr. CLAUDE S. SEMONES
Eyeglass Specialist
(Formerly With Edwin H. Eas)
Now Located
620-110 McLaughlin Building
2nd and G Sts. N.W.

S. Kann Sons Co.

THE BUSY CORNER PENNA. AVE. AT 8 TH. ST.
Open 9:15 A. M. to 6 P. M.

200 Hand-Made Hats

Springtime
Special
Friday

Choice
$4.69

—Colorful effects that you will want to put right on and wear out of the store. And they are so inexpensive that ownership is not a strain on the purse.

—Shown in the new straws—Visca, Visca and Silk, Silk Straw and Silk and All Braid.

—Shapes such as Tricorne, Turban, Mushroom, Off-the-Face and Irregulars.

—Colors—henna, pheasant, pearl gray, tomato, black, navy, sand, brown, etc.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Great Reductions Friday

To Close Out at Once All Odd and Broken Lines of

Winter Suits, Coats, Dolmans

Suits Originally $75.00 to $89.75
—Including tricotines in tailored and belted models; navy blue and black, in sizes 16 years to 44 bust; also stylish stout models (sizes 40½ to 46½) in black and white and navy and white pin stripes; also navy and black tricotines.

Reduced to $49.75

Coats and Dolmans Originally $35.00 to $49.75

—Nobby styles in all wool Bolivia, velour and frostlog, some with self collars beautifully braided and embroidered, others with seal collars. Full fancy silk lined. Choice of the popular colors, also navy and black.

Reduced to $24.95

Kann's—Second Floor.

Spring Ushers Forth Beautiful Hand-Made Waists

—The most severe of suits will assume a gay air embellished by one of these blouses.

Priced, Each, at

$3.98 $5.95

$4.98 $6.95

—Amongst this new shipment are hemstitched, draw-work, frilled and hand-embroidered models. Some are real lace trimmed, others have Val lace. The materials are batiste and voile. Pearl button trimmed.

—They are most beautiful with the new shape collars, and new fastenings.

Kann's—Second Floor.

A Sale of $3.95 to $5.95 Waists Tomorrow at $2.99

—In the lot are Georgettes, Mignonnets, in plain and embroidered styles. Some have colored embroidery. In white, flesh, tan, brown, navy and black.

—Also included are $5.95 All Wool Jersey Blouses, with belt, in brown trimmed in tan, piped cuffs, collar and pockets. Also a little tie bow at neck. Others $2.99 are combined in blue and tan. At...

Kann's—Street Floor—Bargain Table.

Items of Interest and Value Friday At the Art Needlework Store

Prices Are Reduced on Many Novelties and Other Dainty Useful Articles

—Fudge Aprons—Ready made and stamped in new spring designs. Special, each, $1.00

—Serim Scarfs—All hemstitched; some are plain, others stamped. Special, each, 50c

—Combing Jackets—Stamped in new designs. Special, each, 50c

—Tea Towels—Stamped in new spring designs. Special, each, 25c

—Tan Library Scarfs—Stamped in new spring designs. Special, each, 75c

—Pillow Tops, to Match Scarfs—Stamped for loop-stitch or French knot embroidery. Special, each, 50c

—36-Inch Tan Centerpieces—Stamped in new spring designs. Special, each, 98c

—Hemstitched Pillow Cases—Stamped in good designs. Special, a pair, 75c

—Huck Towels—Stamped in new spring designs. Special, each, 35c

Kann's—Fourth Floor.

Cafe St. Marks

913 15th Street

There's Pleasure in Store for You

—if you have yet to lunch or dine in the St. Mark's Grill.

¶ The delightful atmosphere and novelty of the open hearth, with its blazing logs, add to the gastronomic delights of fine cuisine. Tables reserved.

Luncheon, One Dollar | Dinner, Two Dollars
Per Cover, 12 to 2 Daily | Per Cover, 6 to 9:30 P.M.
"The Grill with the Wood Fire" can be reserved for private parties of 25 or more.

Phone Franklin 413 or 419 for Reservations

Connecticut Avenue—the Shopping Focus of Quality and Economy

The expansion of this shopping center is being directed along lines attractive and protective to the shopper.

Connecticut Avenue shops have affiliated to maintain the quality standards of this street and to see that, with the assurance of excellence, you find price an inducement as well.

The individual patron is recognized as an integral part of every Connecticut Avenue business, and as such receives the utmost courtesy, service, conveniences and shopping comforts devisable by brains ever alert for new ways to demonstrate Connecticut Avenue as a symbol for shopping satisfaction in its fullest sense.

Connecticut Avenue Association

FOUNTAIN DUPONT
CIRCLE, CORN. AVE.

Shop on Connecticut Ave.

Cooke—Flower Shop.
Sharpe—Men's Tailor.
Randall H. Hagner—Realtor.
Dupont National Bank.
Allen E. Walker & Co.—Realtors.
Haueler & Co.—Stationers & Engravers.

Affiliated Establishments
M. Pasternak—Women's Apparel.
Manhattan Cleaning Co.
Emile—Hair Dressing Parlor.
Young—Millinery Importer.
L. Corrado & Co.—Interior Decorators.
Ash—Women's Apparel.
George Ray—Architect.

L. C. Zimmerman—Milliner.
Phyrm—Ladies' Tailor.
The John A. O'Rourke Co.—Interior Decorators.
Ogilvie Sisters—Hair Specialists.
Underwood & Underwood—Photographers.
Story & Cobb—Realtors.